PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, a question of the Clerk. Vince, did you plan to put those two Resolutions from the eastern states, one dealing with the national debt and the other one dealing with prohibiting depth of spending in the federal government? Would they appear in the Journal?

CLERK: Not in full but by reference only.

SENATOR GOODRICH: I would, frankly, like to move then that we put both of those in the Journal today. Are they prohibitively long or something? They cannot be more than a page or something like that.

PRESIDENT: Would you request unanimous consent, please, Senator?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? Seeing none, it is so ordered. Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: Just by way of comment, I have a similar
